

 All matter for this department of The Sunday Herald must reach the society editor not later than 4 p. m. Saturday. Notices received after that time cannot be printed Sunday morning.

FROM now on a great many people will begin to seek the mountains and other summer retreats to escape the heat of the city. In fact, quite a number of prominent people have already gone on longer trips, some to the Yellowstone, some to Pacific Grove and some to Santa Cruz.

The past week has been a very busy one for society. Almost every day has seen some large reception or tea, besides any number of smaller affairs. As for weddings, the record has been broken up to date. Among the most important events of the week were the luncheon given by Mrs. Shaughnessy at the Knutsford Monday in honor of Mrs. Van Horn of New York; Tuesday's reception by Mrs. Julia Taylor and Mrs. Richard Royal Romney; and Mrs. L. C. Miller; the wedding of Miss Carolyn B. Williams and Mr. Fred Little on Wednesday evening; Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett's tea; the luncheon by Mrs. Wey Wednesday afternoon; and the tea of Mrs. Priscilla Jennings Friday.

Mrs. Will Ridge was hostess of a thoroughly enjoyable lawn fete yesterday morning from 9 o'clock until 12 in honor of Mrs. Metcalf. The spacious lawn was converted into a cool and comfortable retreat from the sun with the aid of couches, pillows, easy chairs, rugs and flowers, and an interesting game was played, at which prizes were won by Mrs. Winn and

Mrs. Rand. Mrs. Ridge was assisted in serving refreshments by Miss Elsie Ridge, Miss Erete Pinkerton, Miss Margaret Gibbons and Mrs. Edward Metcalf.

Mrs. Metcalf was guest of honor at another affair yesterday afternoon given by Mrs. Henry Swenson at which 600 euchre and an international military game were played. In the last France won and the French national song was sung and was followed by the singing of "America" by all the thirty guests. Mrs. Swenson was assisted by Mrs. Ridge and Mrs. Joe Taylor.

Mrs. E. A. Wall was hostess of a very delightful luncheon during the week, the table being adorned with white carnations and pansies, and a delicious menu served. The invited guests were: Mrs. Henry Newell, Mrs. J. D. Wood, Mrs. J. J. Daly, Mrs. J. J. Broughall, Mrs. Lindsay Rogers, Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton, Mrs. M. A. Kinsick, Mrs. Olive Gaylord, Mrs. George Black, Mrs. A. P. Wey, Mrs. P. S. Keogh, Mrs. A. T. Kerr and Mrs. J. M. Callow.

The Misses Cosgriff entertained at a theatre party Friday night for Miss Edna Donnellan. The party occupied the three west stalls, and after the play was driven to the Kenyon, where supper was served. The guests were: Miss Edna Donnellan, Miss Donnellan, Miss Salisbury, Miss McMillan, Miss Derr, the Misses Kinney, Lieutenant Falls, J. Walcott Thompson, T. Ellis Browne, George N. Lawrence, Charles Keith and Mr. Cosgriff.

One of the events of the week was the informal afternoon given Monday at the Coates home in honor of Miss Amy McDermid, who left during the week for her home in Nevada. The home was profusely decorated with carnations and ferns. A feature of the afternoon was a guessing contest; the prize, a beautiful etching, being won by Miss Nellie Lobach. A number of snap shots were taken of the merry crowd, and delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: The Misses Prout, Kimball, Stevens, Butlerfield, Thompson, Leitchfield, Corum, Sands, Lobach, Naylor, Street, Clegg, Horn, Breckon, Delsner, Brooks, Doffmeyer, Corns, Wolf, O'Neill, Lockhart, Johnson, Hartwell, Hardy, Geddes and Van Cott.

On Wednesday evening last Miss Sissie Burnett and Harry Price were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burnett. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Woolley at 7 o'clock in the presence of the family and intimate friends of the bride and groom.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of cream silk voile and carried bride's roses. Her bridesmaid, Nellie Kunkel, was dressed in blue silk mull. Rudolph Christensen acted as best man. The home was beautifully decorated with a profusion of palms, roses, carnations and sweet peas, while on the lawn dozens of Chinese lanterns were hung among the trees. In the dining room, which was done entirely in pink and green, a wedding supper was served to nearly 100 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Price have a host of friends, who wish them joy in their future life.

Mr. Dale Pitt gave an enjoyable euchre party Thursday night to Ethel Thompson, Grace Berg, Lucila Irvine, Blanch Whettedea, and Than Smith.

The wedding of Miss Isabella Anderson and Mr. Robert W. Carcroft was solemnized Wednesday afternoon in the temple and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Carcroft will be at home after July 10 at 337 South Seventh East.

Miss Burmeister entertained Monday in honor of her friend, Miss Holzeberger of Great Falls, Mont. A unique guessing game was the feature of the afternoon and prizes were won by Miss Hazel Crew, Miss Pedersen and Miss Perkes. Those present were: Mrs. D. S. McCurdy, the Misses Peeler, Leach, Crew, of Chicago; Hill of Montana, Perkes, Morse, Sanchi, Brown, Johnston, Ryan, Burmeister and Benton.
